President Palmquist called the hearing to order.

Attorney Chris Nichols, representing AASH Holdings, LLC who owns the property at 4 South 3rd Street, explained Mr. Alfred Argiro, would like to transfer a liquor license owned by Why Two Inc to AASH Holdings LLC. The plan is to have the license be used at the property that was the former Youngwood Moose located at 4 South 3rd Street.

Attorney Nichols proceeded to explain the lengthy process of the transferring a liquor license.

Mr. Argiro was asked what his plans were for the property. He explained he plans to renovate the building. He would like to create a family friendly environment by having a family style bar/restaurant. He explained he did not have a thorough inspection of the structure but the "bones" of the building are good.

Mr. Argiro was told that he would have to comply with any state and/or local permit requirements when completing the renovations.

President Palmquist reminded all that if this transfer goes through, people may contact the LCB to file a complaint, just like they can now for other restaurants with liquor licenses or bars in the Borough.

With no further questions, the public hearing ended at 6:42 PM.

Respectfully submitted,
